College of the Desert Announces Finalists in Presidential Search Community Forums Scheduled July 6, 2021

After a nationwide search, College of the Desert is pleased to announce three finalists will move forward in the College's recruitment for a new Superintendent/President during community forums being held on Tuesday, July 6, 2021, between 9 a.m. and noon in the Pollock Theatre on the College's Palm Desert Campus.

"Our new President will need to be a dynamic leader who understands our College and our diverse community," said Interim Vice President of Human Resources Mark Zacovic, Ph.D. "These forums provide an important opportunity for members of our community, including our students, faculty and staff, to meet and hear from the final candidates before the final selection."

Anyone who would like to submit questions for consideration during the forums should email them to Stan A. Carrizosa Sr. of Community College Search Services at stan.carrizosa@ccss.solutions. 1. All attendees must enter campus through the College's Fred Waring Entrance and complete a safety questionnaire as they arrive.
