KCOD radio station brings home 13 national awards

PALM DESERT, CA— KCOD, College of the Desert's student radio station, won 13 Golden Microphones at the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System's national awards ceremony on Saturday night in New York City.

KCOD Coachella FM won first place for the Best On-Air Schedule that represents the station's overall programming and content and the Best Training Manual that Station Manager Toni Bakal created for new students.

KCOD received another 11 awards for being among the top three in the nation.

The squad was among just three stations nominated in the highly competitive award for Best Community College Radio Station in the nation.

You can listen to KCOD at 87.9 FM, via the TuneIn Radio app on your smart phone and online at www.kcodcoachellafm.com, where you can also find their schedule of diverse offerings, which includes alternative music, hip-hop, classic rock, '80s, metal, Coachella and Stagecoach artists' music, and local Coachella Valley acts. The station also interviews local and big-name bands.

KCOD can also be found Twitter and Instagram (@KCODcoachellafm).

About College of the Desert:

Established in 1958, College of the Desert (COD), located in Palm Desert, is an accredited community college serving eastern Riverside County, California. The College leads the region in providing quality, higher education, technical training and lifelong learning opportunities, in response to the dynamic needs of our diverse community. The College serves more than 14,000 credit students and 1,000 non-credit students each year and is the number one source of transfer students to California State University, San Bernardino Palm Desert Campus.
