MATHEMATICS

The Mathematics is the study of quantity, structure, space and change. It is developed through the use of abstraction and logical reasoning from counting, calculations, measurement, study of shapes & change.

The Associate in Science Degree in Mathematics for Transfer (Math AS-T) provides student with sufficient understanding of mathematical concepts, skills and application to attain upper division status in mathematics at most 4-year institutions. This degree is intended for students who are interested in the theory of mathematics and are planning on transferring to a four-year institution and majoring in Mathematics, Physics, Engineering, Computer Science or Statistics.

Successful completion of the Math AS-T guarantees the student acceptance to a California State University (but not to a particular campus) to pursue a 4-year degree in Mathematics, Engineering, Statistics, Math Education.

To obtain the Associate in Science in Mathematics for Transfer degree, students are required to complete the following:

1. Completion of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
2. Minimum grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 in all CSU-transferable coursework. While a minimum of 2.0 is required for admission, some majors may require a higher GPA. Please consult with a counselor for more information.
3. Completion of 24 semester units in the Mathematics major as detailed in the Program Requirements below. All courses in the major must be completed with a grade of C or better or a “P” if the course is taken on a “pass-no pass” basis (title 5 § 55063).
4. Certified completion of either the California State University General Education-Breadth (CSU GE Breadth) pattern, (see page 64 of the catalog); OR the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) pattern, (see page 66 of the catalog) for more information.

Students transferring to a CSU campus that does accept the AS-T will be required to complete no more than 60 units after transfer to earn a bachelor’s degree (unless the major is a designated “high-unit” major). This degree may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a counselor when planning to complete the degree for more information on university admission and transfer requirements.

ARTS

Art is the study of communicating concepts and ideas visually. Career paths chosen by students pursuing undergraduate to graduate studies in art include, but are not limited to, studio artist, art educator, art consultant, art therapist, conservator, museum curator and art educator. Even students who choose not to major in studio art can improve their ability in complex and creative problem solving, critical analysis, research skills, understanding the intuitive process and in their ability to visualize. College of the Desert’s Studio Arts curriculum includes course offerings that provide a general overview and history of the discipline as well as specific training in the myriad of studio areas. The College offers an Associate of Arts degree in Art consisting of courses and training allowing students to pursue entry-level positions such as designers, illustrators or gallery assistants or to continue their study in the discipline toward a B.F.A., B.A. or Graduate level degree.

To obtain the Associate in Arts in Studio Arts for Transfer degree, students are required to complete the following:

1. Completion of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
2. Minimum grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 in all CSU-transferable coursework. While a minimum of 2.0 is required for admission, some majors may require a higher GPA. Please consult with a counselor for more information.

4. Certified completion of either the California State University General Education-Breadth (CSU GE Breadth) pattern, (see page 64 of the catalog); OR the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) pattern, (see page 66 of the catalog) for more information.

Students transferring to a CSU campus that does accept the AA-T will be required to complete no more than 60 units after transfer to earn a bachelor’s degree (unless the major is a designated “high-unit” major). This degree may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a counselor when planning to complete the degree for more information on university admission and transfer requirements.

THEATRE ARTS

Theatre Arts is the study of the creative, historical, technical, and cultural aspects of performance. Career paths chosen by students pursuing undergraduate studies in Theatre Arts commonly include performance, education, design, and communication. Careers in the discipline that generally require graduate-level degrees include dramatic criticism and education. Even students who choose not to major in Theatre Arts find that coursework in the field can improve their ability to communicate, problem solve, speak publicly, build self-confidence, and work successfully both collaboratively and independently. College of the Desert’s Theatre Arts curriculum includes course offerings that provide a general overview and history of the discipline, training in acting, makeup, design, technical production, and script analysis. The College offers an Associate of Arts degree in Theatre Arts consisting of courses and training allowing students to pursue entry-level positions as performers and technicians or to continue their study in the discipline toward a B.A. or Graduate degree. College of the Desert offers transfer agreements with California State Universities, the University of California systems and independent colleges and universities.

To obtain the Associate in Arts in Theatre Arts for Transfer degree, students are required to complete the following:

1. Completion of 60 CSU-transferable semester units.
2. Minimum grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 in all CSU-transferable coursework. While a minimum of 2.0 is required for admission, some majors may require a higher GPA. Please consult with a counselor for more information.
3. Completion of a minimum of 18 semester units in the Theatre Arts major as detailed in the Program Requirements below. All courses in the major must be completed with a grade of C or better or a “P” if the course is taken on a “pass-no pass” basis (title 5 § 55063).
4. Certified completion of either the California State University General Education-Breadth (CSU GE Breadth) pattern, (see page 64 of the catalog); OR the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) pattern, (see page 66 of the catalog) for more information.

Students transferring to a CSU campus that does accept the AA-T will be required to complete no more than 60 units after transfer to earn a bachelor’s degree (unless the major is a designated “high-unit” major). This degree may not be the best option for students intending to transfer to a particular CSU campus or to university or college that is not part of the CSU system. Students should consult with a counselor when planning to complete the degree for more information on university admission and transfer requirements.
