

Orientation Exemption Information:

New COD students who plan to take less than six semester units, have completed orientation at another college, or who have already attained an AA degree or higher may be exempt from attending orientation. If you feel you qualify for an exemption, please visit the COD Counseling Center to complete a Matriculation Waiver Form. If you would like more information about the exemption criteria, please call the COD Counseling Center at (760) 773-2522.
