3. Information/Discussion Items

3.1 Interacts Responsiveness– Jeff Baker and Christen Smith

Co-Chairs Jeff Baker and Christen Smith noted from the focus group questionnaire, Failure to Enroll responses highlighted several areas requiring follow-up. Going forward VP Baker stressed the importance of the suggestions that will be under consideration. Three break-out groups had thirty-minute sessions to address the issues noted in the report.

3.1.1 The meeting reconvened at 1:50 p.m. for short takeaways from each group:

- Develop communication plan for financial aid/scholarships
- Develop a two-year schedule for FT/PT/non-traditional times with industry input for FT working students

- Develop hospitality onboarding plan from inquiry to first day to welcome students and encourage resiliency

Conclusion: Results of group discussions will be assessed during the November 22 General Session meeting.

3.2 Funding Request Approval Pillar III Resource Center

Christen reviewed the funding request submitted for a Professional Development portal which will deliver and track professional development activities across all sectors of the campus community; faculty staff, administrators and students. This effort addresses each of the four pillar goals.

Conclusion: Steering Committee unanimously approved.

Pillar teams went to their respective classrooms for pillar team meetings.
