

Arizona Resident Reduced Tuition Program

College of the Desert's Board of Trustees have established a reduced tuition program for the enrollment of nonresident students from the State of Arizona for the 2019-2020, 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 academic years. The Arizona Resident Reduced Tuition Program provides for a maximum of 100 nonresident Arizona students enrolled at College of the Desert for the 2019-2020, 2020-2021 and 2021-2022 academic years, the District's nonresident tuition fee shall be $138 per semester unit, equivalent to three times the current California resident per-unit fee. The program is awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Student Statement:

I understand that this reduced tuition program is valid for only the following terms: Summer 2019 through Spring 2022. Should I remain enrolled at College of the Desert beyond the Spring 2022 term I understand I will be charged the standard out-of-state tuition rates in effect at the time.

Students who become California residents can pursue residency reclassification by completing the College's Residency Questionnaire and providing the required supporting documentation.
