

From: Curt Luttrell
Subject: Black History Month Event!
Date: Monday, February 8, 2021 5:22:11 PM
Attachments: BSSC - Bocafoja Event Flyer \(1\).pdf
image001.png

Attached to this email is a copy of the flyer shown below with active hot links for you.

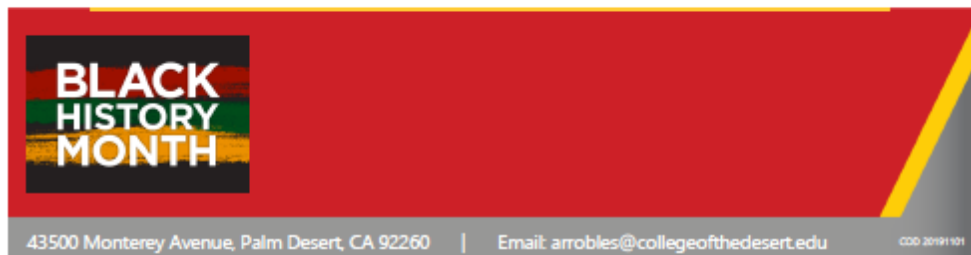

Black History Month Event!

Black and Brown Art Speaking Truth to Power: A Conversation with Multimedia Artist Bocafoja

Thursday, February 11, 6-8pm via Zoom: REGISTRATION LINK

Bocafoja is a multimedia artist whose art forms range from Hip Hop, Spoken word and Documentary filmmaking. Hailing from Mexico City, MX, Bocafoja has traveled to over 30 countries to perform, lecture, and show his film, Nana Dijo. He has been featured in BBC, NPR, Afropunk, Remezcla, MTV Iggy, NACLA, CULTURESTRIKE amongst many others. This event will engage with questions on race and Black identity in Mexico and Latin America; cultural production; art and political participation from the margins; and hip hop and artistic production. This program features a conversation between Bocafoja and Dr. Mzilikazi Koné of Political Science, and will also feature spoken word poetry by our guest.

43500 Monterey Avenue, Palm Desert, CA 92260

| Email: arobles@collegeofthedesert.edu

COD 20191101