The last day to add full term courses has passed and all add codes for full term courses have expired but there is still time to add a late starting Spring 2021 course.

To see all our late starting courses use WebAdvisor and just enter (all shown below)...

1. Today's date under the "Starting On/After Date"
2. Last day of the term under the "Ending By Date" (5/28/21)
3. Now select "Undergraduate" under Academic Level, leave everything else blank then hit "SUBMIT" at the bottom of the screen.

That will give you an up-to-date list of all our late starting courses.

We have added many late start courses since the printing our schedule.

As of this morning we have 148 sections that have not yet started.

Be sure and check back often as additional offering may be added.
