

TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

ARTICLE 9: SUMMER AND WINTER INTERSESSION

The period between spring and fall semesters in the months of June, July, and August will be allocated for summer classes. The period between the fall and spring semesters in the month of January each year will be allocated for Intersession classes. If classes are scheduled during Summer or this Winter Intersession period, the following conditions shall apply:

Section 9.1. Holidays

Summer: There will be two holidays during this period, Juneteenth and Independence Day.

Winter: There will be one holiday during this period, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Section 9.2. Faculty member's Summer and Winter Intersession rate is ~~will be~~ defined in Article 8: Compensation.

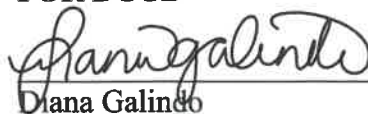

~~Section 9.3.— Faculty members who teach during this time will attend a paid special training and support sessions not to exceed two (2) hour (s) regarding the teaching of short-term classes prior to being eligible to teach during Intersession. Faculty shall be compensated for this training at the established rate. Faculty members are required to take this specialized training only once and will not be compensated if they desire to take it again.~~

Section 9.3-9.4. Limits on overload as defined in Article 12.8 shall not apply to Summer and Winter Intersession ~~classes will not be counted as a part of faculty load or overload, unless a load balancing agreement is in place.~~

Section 9.4 Intersession classes will not be counted as a part of faculty contract load ~~or overload~~, unless a load balancing agreement is in place. Work during summer and winter intersession may be used for load balancing and load Load banking. ~~will not apply to any classes taught during Intersession.~~

Section 9.5. Service/committee assignments will not be required during Summer and Winter Intersession. One office hour per week will be required for each course taught.

FOR DCCD

Diana Galindo
Vice President, Human Resources
& Employee Relations
Desert Community College District

FOR CODFA

Oceana Collins (Oct 11, 2023 06:50 PDT)

Oceana Collins
Chapter President
College of the Desert Faculty Association

TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

ARTICLE 9: SUMMER AND WINTER INTERSESSION

The period between spring and fall semesters in the months of June, July, and August will be allocated for summer classes. The period between the fall and spring semesters in the month of January each year will be allocated for Intersession classes. If classes are scheduled during Summer or Winter Intersession, the following conditions shall apply:

Section 9.1. Holidays

Summer: There will be two holidays during this period, Juneteenth and Independence Day.

Winter: There will be one holiday during this period, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Section 9.2. Faculty member's Summer and Winter Intersession rate is defined in Article 8: Compensation.

Section 9.3. Limits on overload as defined in Article 12.8 shall not apply to Summer and Winter Intersession.

Section 9.4. Intersession classes will not be counted as a part of faculty contract load, unless a load balancing agreement is in place. Work during summer and winter intersession may be used for load balancing and load banking.

Section 9.5. Service/committee assignments will not be required during Summer and Winter Intersession. One office hour per week will be required for each course taught.