

Campus Meal Plan Authorization Form for Financial Aid Funds

Name: _____

Student ID #: _____

College of the Desert offers a campus meal plan for students who wish to eat on campus and obtain a great deal for their money. Students can use their COD student ID card as a way to pay for their campus meal at Beeps Café. Beeps Café offers a variety of meals for students to choose from and select. Our standard meal plan is $250 per semester. With $250, you will be able to purchase approximately 40 to 60 campus meals per semester (amount varies by student).

Financial Aid Funds

If you have completed your FAFSA or Dream Act application for this academic year, you may be eligible to use your Pell grant, Cal Grant or scholarship funds to pay for your campus meal plan. To do so, you will need to sign and submit this form authorizing College of the Desert to use your funds to pay for your campus meal plan. Your meal plan will be activated as soon as you are approved, and the funds will be deducted from your next financial aid disbursement. You will be notified if you are eligible under this option.

Once your authorization form has been processed, your student ID card will be the official way to pay for your campus meal plan. You will swipe your COD student identification to purchase your campus meal. With each transaction you will know your remaining balance from your original amount of purchase.

Student Authorization of Financial Aid Funds

By signing below, I authorize College of the Desert to charge my account for the Campus Meal plan for the 2019-2020 award year. I authorize College of the Desert to use my financial aid sources, if any, including grants, or scholarships that I have been awarded, to pay the charges listed below. I recognize that these charges will be paid after tuition, fees, and book voucher charges. I understand that any unused portion of the meal plan will be rolled over to the spring 2020 semester and I will forfeit any unused plans as of the last service date for the spring 2020 semester.

I understand that this purchase is nonrefundable any unused portion of the meal plan will be forfeited after June 30, 2020.
