Schedule Guide

How to Read This Schedule

This schedule is organized alphabetically by subject. Each subject begins with a heading showing the Subject Description and Code, followed by the School and Department. Under each subject, courses are listed by Course Code and Title, followed by the units, lecture and laboratory hours, transferability, and a course description. Under each course, individual sections are listed with the section number, number of weeks, location, dates, instructor, instructional method, meeting time, days, and building and room. Any printed comments appear below the section.

Searching for a Course

To find a specific course, press Ctrl+F (or Cmd+F on a Mac) to open the search box, then type the course code (for example, "MATH-012") or a subject name (for example, "Mathematics").
